Bethlehem girl wins state Little Starlet title

A 3-year-old Bethlehem girl won the Little Starlet Pennsylvania title in the Tiny Stars of America pageant held recently at Hotel Regency in Media, Delaware County.
Tiffany Hein, daughter of Robert and Marcia Hein, took top honors in competition with 13 other contestants in the division which was for 3- and 4-year-old girls.
She is eligible to represent Pennsylvania in the national pageant to be held in September in Lake Buena Vista, Fla.
The Tiny Stars of America pageant is not a beauty pageant, but is designed to pick children good for modeling or ad assignments.
Tiffany also won a state title in May 1985 in Harrisburg when she was crowned Little Miss Sunburst of Pennsylvania.

Business Women's Association announced recipients of its $500 scholarships at a recent dinner-dance in Hotel Bethlehem.
During the program Bethlehem Mayor Paul Marcincin presented ABWA President Dorothea Klutz with a proclamation naming May 11-17 as "American Business Woman's Association Week" in Bethlehem and George Sacarakis, representing Rep. Don Ritter, gave the Bethlehem chapter a proclamation from the congressman honoring the group's efforts and achievements.
Receiving the scholarships are:
► Teresa Marie Gyauch, daughter of Mrs. Loraine Gyauch of Bethlehem, a student at Bethlehem Catholic High School, who will attend Davidson College.
► Sherry Lee Hoffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoffer of Bethlehem, a student at Liberty High School, who will attend Millersville University.
► Nancy Alice Kesling, daughter of Mrs. Patricia Kesling of Bethlehem, a senior at Freedom High School, who will attend the University of Delaware.

Liberty honor roll additions

Liberty High School last week omitted the names of three members from its high honor roll. Also named were Christine Malos, 10th grade, and Yuzhang Duan, 11th grade and Garret Dudeck, 11th grade.
