Hospital Aides To Hold Dance

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Allentown Osteopathic Hospital is preparing for its fourth annual charity ball to be held May 10th at the Holiday Inn West.

Mrs. Dale M. Steventon, chairman of the ball committee, announced that this year's theme for the affair is "Star Dust." Guests will dance in a candle light, garden of flowers setting from 9:30 to 1:30 a.m., to the music of the Bud Rader orchestra. A buffet breakfast will be served beginning at midnight.

More than 350 guests are expected to attend the ball which has grown from a yearly hospital dance into an important money-making occasion. Over the last three years, this annual ball has raised $6,000 for the hospital. This year's proceeds will be given to the hospital's staff to use as they deem most expedient in association with the hospital's modernization and expansion program.

Mrs. Steventon added that "the cooperation and participation by everyone in the auxiliary has been outstanding, especially the work of the committee." The committee includes Mrs. Vincent P. Salvadge, who is president of the Auxiliary; Mrs. Vincent P. Salvadge, Mrs. Gerald Melamut and Mrs. Neil O'Boyle, decorations; Mrs. William Bollman, invitations, and Mrs. Brendan O'Brien.

Canned nuts will keep unopened on the shelf indefinitely. However, once opened, they should be stored in the refrigerator.

As a result of its service contributions to the community, the Easton club has received a $100 award from the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs for its citizen action project in the Northeast District, which comprises 105 junior and senior units.

The award, which will be presented at the Pennsylvania Federation on May 15, will be donated to the ProJeCt Fund Raising Campaign now in progress.

Charm School Helps Patient

A "charm school" which teaches patients the basics of cleanliness and beauty is paying big dividends at the South Florida State Hospital.

A very successful volunteer project is a weekly session where patients receive shampoos, manicures, beauty treatments, and cleanliness tips. According to the hospital staff, the first sign that a disturbed woman patient is getting better comes when she starts paying attention to her appearance.
