Winners in programming contest are announced

The fourth-annual Northeast Region Pennsylvania Learning Resources microcomputer programming contest was held yesterday at the Colonial Northampton Intermediate Unit 20 office.

Competing were students and teachers representing I-U 20, Luzerne Intermediate Unit 18, Northeastern Intermediate Unit 19, Carbon-Lehigh Intermediate Unit 21 and Schuylkill Intermediate Unit 29.

Yesterday's winners will advance to the state finals Nov. 22 in Hershey, Dauphin County, during the Pennsylvania Learning Resources Association's annual conference.

The contest is to recognize student achievement and to focus interest on work being accomplished in computer education in schools throughout the state. The contests were sponsored by the association and the intermediate units.

Winners were:

► Kindergarten through 6th grade — first, Dawn Mecir and Karen Marchetti, 6th-graders at Freeland School in the Hazleton Area School District, I-U 18; second, Michael Dances of Muhlenberg School, Allentown School District, I-U 21; third, Justin Tripp of Northeast Christian School, near Scranton, I-U 19; fourth, Gabriel Siftar of Spring Garden School, Bethlehem Area School District, I-U 20.

► Grades 7-9 — first, John D. Liberto and Austin Peoples of GAR Memorial High School, Wilkes-Barre Area School District, I-U 18; second, James C. Haas, Nitchmann Middle School, Bethlehem Area School District, I-U 20; third, Eric Lenner and Charles Piervallo, Lincoln Middle School, Catasauqua Area School District, I-U 20; fourth, John Batzel of Northeast Christian.

► Grades 10-12: first, Bruce G. Blonar, Allen High School, I-U 21; second, Mathias Reif, Schuylkill Haven High School, Schuylkill Haven Area School District, I-U 19; third, David Geoffrey Yelen and James W. Walker, Wyoming Valley West High School, Wyoming Valley West School District, I-U 18; fourth, Robert Ragona, Western Wayne High School, Western Wayne School District, I-U 19; fifth, David Bader, Liberty High School, I-U 20.

► Adult — first, Adam R. Edmondson, a teacher at Hazleton High School, Hazleton Area School District, I-U 18; second, Myron E. Yoder, a teacher at Dieruff High School, I-U 21.

Bethlehem school group takes first in highway safety contest

Call Harrisburg Bureau

CAMP HILL — Bethlehem Catholic High School's Key Club was a first-place winner in the highway safety competition held by the Governor's Traffic Safety Council. The club won first prize in the youth division of the contest.

The winners of the various competitions were honored yesterday during the council's annual convention in a Harrisburg suburb.

Other area persons and organizations who were honored included Lehigh Valley Hospital Center and the City of Allentown's Health Bureau, winners of merit awards in the health division; Emmaus High School Safety Belt Campaign, in the safety education division; Joanne Frey, of the Lehigh Valley Chapter, American Red Cross, in the occupant restraint division, and The Morning Call, for its efforts in publicizing the seat belt issue.

Ginny Thornburgh, wife of Gov. Dick Thornburgh, awarded plaques to the first-prize winners during the awards luncheon yesterday.

The council is made up of a cross-section of state officials, including legislators, cabinet heads, the attorney general and judges.
