5 carriers receive scholarships

Salisbury High graduate chosen as top applicant

Five college-bound students have been awarded scholarships in this year's Morning Call Newspaper Carrier Scholarship Awards program. Winner of the Edwin R. Wark Memorial Scholarship, awarded to the top applicant of David J. Novak, son of Victor and Kathleen Novak of 800 Sunset St., Bethlehem, Novak, a Salisbury High School graduate, has been a carrier for five years. He'll be attending the University of Pennsylvania this fall, majoring in biology or biochemistry.

Other scholarship winners were: Lori Jean Schofer, daughter of David and Elaine Schofer, of 1246 Oakdale St., Bethlehem. Schofer, a Liberty High School graduate, has been a carrier for six years. She plans to attend Temple University and major in physical therapy.

David F. Bader, son of Morris and Karen Bader, of 1802 Lorain Ave., Bethlehem. Bader has been a carrier for five years. He will attend Lehigh University and major in computer engineering.
