

THE MORNING CALL

TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 2005

Obituaries

Morris Bader

Morris Bader, 72, of Bethlehem, died peacefully at home on April 21, 2005. He was the husband of Karen (Rider) Bader. They were married for 43 years. Born in New York, he was the son of the late Louis and Esther (Saltzman) Bader. He was a graduate of Shawmut High School, New York City. He was a 1953 graduate of City University of New York, formerly City College of New York, and earned his doctorate in physical chemistry from Indiana University, Bloomington. He taught at New York University, Marquette (Ohio) College and Moravian College. He was an emeritus professor of chemistry at Moravian College. He taught chemistry and computer science from 1962 until his retirement in 1995. He also taught physical chemistry, developed the initial computer program for finding nodes and funded the SCAR program for finding nodes and calculated and developed a plant growth hormone. He was a scientific glassblower, making much of his own equipment. He developed six computer manuals and software, which sold worldwide. The profits of which were donated to assist faculty research travel to conferences. He developed the course, "Chemistry for the non-science major," and his paper, "A Systematic Approach to Standard Addition Methods in Instrumental Analysis," is highly cited and used widely in practice. He and two patents on a bicycle gear system and one for a quartz infrared cell, both manufactured. He has published numerous articles in numerical scientific computing, differential equations and proposed accuracy and error analysis in numerical computing. His chemistry publications include various chemical experiments used by educators and guidelines and error estimates for the neglect of buoyancy in laboratory weighings. He has published in the Journal of Chemical Education and in American Laboratory of which he was a contributing editor. He was a championship chess player and the Moravian College Chess Club advisor. He supported the Moravian College Foreign Film Festival. His many volunteer activities included teaching swimming to toddlers at the Third Street Alliance, Easton, Roshale Theatre, State Theatre, 1987 year Musical volunteer, Lehigh Valley Hospital Muhlenberg, Bethlehem, financial advisor to the Friendship Circle of the Jewish Community Center and assistant secretary of Troop 394 and 344 in the Miami Trails Council. Boy Scouts of America. Morris was a member of Congregation Beth Abraham, formerly Agudath Achim, Bethlehem. He was a member of the board and then president for 20 years. He read Torah and led services.

Services: Will be held at the home of his wife, Karen, 1510 Main St., Bethlehem 18018, on Tuesday, April 26, 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Burial will be in the C.R. Strunk Funeral Home, Inc., 1500 W. Broad St., Allentown.

Contributions: Can be made to the Moravian College Foreign Film Festival, 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., Allentown, PA 18104-4399 or St. Philip Nevi Catholic Church, 1325 Klunberg Rd., Pennsylvania, PA 18077.

Eugene C. Armbruster
Eugene C. Armbruster, 70, of 550 Main St., Allentown, passed away April 24, 2005 in Lehigh Valley Hospital, Lehigh Valley Township. He was the husband of Barbara A. (Ginsinger) Armbruster. They were married for 20 years on April 23, 2005. He was the son of the late Clarence and Dorothy (Vandergriff) Armbruster. He was a member of the Air Force serving during peace time. He was a dry cleaner and sewing machine mechanic in the Philadelphia, Allentown and Palmerton areas for many years. Eugene was a member of Episcopal Ministry of Unity, Palmerton.

Services: Will be held at the home of his wife, Barbara, 1500 W. Broad St., Allentown, on Tuesday, April 26, 10:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Burial will be in the C.R. Strunk Funeral Home, Inc., 1500 W. Broad St., Allentown.

Contributions: In memory of Eugene C. Armbruster, may be made to Congregation Beth Avraham, 1551 Linnwood St., Bethlehem 18017, or to Bader Memorial Scholarship Fund in Chemistry, Moravian College, 1200 Main St., Bethlehem 18018. Please give Gene Book on mail.com/obit.

Winifred E. Green

Winifred E. Green, 89, of Lehigh, died Saturday evening in Graduate Hospital Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Lehigh. She was the wife of the late Allen H. Green, who passed away in 1996. Born in Summit Hill, she was a daughter of the late L. A. and Sabina D. (Mantzi) Kern. Winifred was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, Mahoning Valley. She was a Summerfield High School graduate. She was a member and past secretary of the Mahoning Valley Golden Age. Her interests, caring and love for family and friends were an inspiration to all that knew her. She will always be in their hearts.

Services: Son, Allen C. and his wife, Frances, of 14101; three grandchildren, Cheryl Suek of Topsheld, Maine; Gregory Green of Souderton, Brian Green of Parkville; two great-grandchildren.

Services: 11 a.m. Thursday, Miller Funeral Home, 137 Fairview Street, Lehigh 18220. Call 717-851-1111 in the funeral home. Inquest, St. John's Lutheran Church, Mahoning Drive, Lehigh 18220 and American Diabetes Association, Lehigh Valley Branch, 601 S. 17th Street, Suite 212, Allentown 18104.

Mary Sailer
Mary Sailer, 80, of Red Hill formerly of Quakertown died April 24. She was the wife of the late Charles Sailer. She was a member of the St. Philip Nevi Catholic Church in Quakertown.

Services: Two daughters Mary Ellen Paik and Rose A. Sailer; two sons Donald Sailer and Donald Sailer; four grandchildren Tracy, Eric, Amy, & K.L. and two great grandchildren Matthew & Tyler. She was preceded by a sister Edna C. Burek.

Services: A mass will be held on Friday, April 29 at 11:00 A.M. at St. Philip Nevi Catholic Church, Pennsburg, Call 610-260-0400 A.M. in the C.R. Strunk Funeral Home, Inc., 1500 W. Broad St., Allentown.

Contributions: Can be made to the Moravian College Foreign Film Festival, 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., Allentown, PA 18104-4399 or St. Philip Nevi Catholic Church, 1325 Klunberg Rd., Pennsylvania, PA 18077.

Eugene C. Armbruster
Eugene C. Armbruster, 70, of 550 Main St., Allentown, passed away April 24, 2005 in Lehigh Valley Hospital, Lehigh Valley Township. He was the husband of Barbara A. (Ginsinger) Armbruster. They were married for 20 years on April 23, 2005. He was the son of the late Clarence and Dorothy (Vandergriff) Armbruster. He was a member of the Air Force serving during peace time. He was a dry cleaner and sewing machine mechanic in the Philadelphia, Allentown and Palmerton areas for many years. Eugene was a member of Episcopal Ministry of Unity, Palmerton.

George S. Kellett

George S. Kellett, 81, of Allentown, passed away April 24, 2005 in Fellowship Manor, Whitehall. He was the husband of Ruth A. (Wassam) Kellett. They celebrated their 41st anniversary last August. Born in Staunton, he was the son of the late William and Anna (Chabot) Kellett. He was a teacher for the Tamaqua Area School District retiring in 1990. Prior to that, he taught in St. Mary's County School District, Maryland, for a combined 29 years of service. He graduated from Kutztown University with a bachelor's and master's degrees in history. He also attended Ursinus College, Western Maryland College and George Washington University. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, Staunton. He was an Army veteran of World War II, where he served in the Pacific Theatre and received a Bronze Star. He was a member of the Allen O. Deike American Legion Post No. 516, Staunton. George was also a member of Jordan Martin Masonic Lodge 273, Jordan Royal Arch Chapter 281, Allen Commandery 20 Knight Templar of Pennsylvania Lodge 862, search and he was an assistant librarian at the Harry I. Trender Masonic Library, all in Allentown. He was a member of Faith Shrine Temple, Reading.

Services: Will be held at the home of his wife, Robert Wassam, sister-in-law, Sarah Wassam, nephew, Eric Wassam, and niece, Tina Bell of Bethlehem, Va. at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, April 28, 2005 at the funeral home. Inquest, St. John's Lutheran Church, Mahoning Drive, Lehigh 18220 and American Diabetes Association, Lehigh Valley Branch, 601 S. 17th Street, Suite 212, Allentown 18104.

Mary Sailer
Mary Sailer, 80, of Red Hill formerly of Quakertown died April 24. She was the wife of the late Charles Sailer. She was a member of the St. Philip Nevi Catholic Church in Quakertown.

Services: Two daughters Mary Ellen Paik and Rose A. Sailer; two sons Donald Sailer and Donald Sailer; four grandchildren Tracy, Eric, Amy, & K.L. and two great grandchildren Matthew & Tyler. She was preceded by a sister Edna C. Burek.

Services: A mass will be held on Friday, April 29 at 11:00 A.M. at St. Philip Nevi Catholic Church, Pennsburg, Call 610-260-0400 A.M. in the C.R. Strunk Funeral Home, Inc., 1500 W. Broad St., Allentown.

Contributions: Can be made to the Moravian College Foreign Film Festival, 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., Allentown, PA 18104-4399 or St. Philip Nevi Catholic Church, 1325 Klunberg Rd., Pennsylvania, PA 18077.

Eugene C. Armbruster
Eugene C. Armbruster, 70, of 550 Main St., Allentown, passed away April 24, 2005 in Lehigh Valley Hospital, Lehigh Valley Township. He was the husband of Barbara A. (Ginsinger) Armbruster. They were married for 20 years on April 23, 2005. He was the son of the late Clarence and Dorothy (Vandergriff) Armbruster. He was a member of the Air Force serving during peace time. He was a dry cleaner and sewing machine mechanic in the Philadelphia, Allentown and Palmerton areas for many years. Eugene was a member of Episcopal Ministry of Unity, Palmerton.

BRIEFING

GOOD SHEPHERD MOVING WHEELCHAIR CLINIC

The Good Shepherd Wheelchair Clinic is moving from its south Allentown location to the Lehigh Valley Hospital-Muhlenberg campus in Bethlehem. The new clinic will open next Tuesday on the first floor of Good Shepherd-Bethlehem. The last clinic in Allentown will be today. There will be a clinic in Lehigh on Wednesday.

The Wheelchair Clinic helps more than 30 clients determine which wheelchair is appropriate for them. For two hours or more they are thoroughly assessed with their needs, goals and level and function evaluated. At the end of the day, they are given a list of recommended wheelchairs. Each chair is custom designed based on the user's specifications.

When the chair arrives, usually within two to six weeks, a client is trained how to properly use it at the clinic. To contact Good Shepherd Rehabilitation Network call 610-774-2247 or toll free 1-877-734-2247.

COMUNITY FOCUS TO FOCUS ON HEALTHY LIVING
A community forum focusing on accessing services for healthy living will be held 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursday, Westminister Village, 863 N. Walnut St., Allentown. A continental breakfast will be held at 9 a.m. The forum will be moderated by the Westminister Village assistant. The public education forum will highlight a presentation by Robin Piro, former executive director of Lehigh County Adult and Senior Services, Dr. Donna Miller, a geriatric physician with a specialty in dementia care, and attorney James Ritzler whose focus is on estate planning and living wills.

Registration for the forum will discuss Medicare and Medicaid. A demonstration of "Benefit Checkup," John Mohler, executive director for Northampton County, Services of Aging and Aging, will speak on transportation and caregiver services. Staff of the Lehigh County Adult and Senior Services will discuss the role of the ombudsman in home and community services.

There is no admission but reservations are requested by calling 610-782-8400.

WOMEN'S OPPORTUNITIES CAN HELP VETERANS WITH CLAIMS

Dorothy Matthews, regional representative for the governor's Veterans Outreach and Assistance Center, will be available 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. May 4 at the office of state Rep. Douglas Reitzley, R-Lehigh, 1245 Chestnut St., Unit 5, Emmaus.

Matthews will provide assistance with disability claims, records or medals replacement and job searches. For veterans with emergency services from Sept. 11, 1945 to Dec. 31, 1991, Matthews can make applications for the Cold War Recognition Certificate. Applications also can be made for the Korean War Service Medal if veterans served in Korea during the war.

ALL-TOWNS AQUATIC CENTER CLASS INTRODUCES SCUBA DIVING

The Rodale Aquatic Center for Civic Health at Cedar Crest College will offer a special one-evening course on diving in pool conditions.

During the 6:30-9:30 p.m. May 4 clinic, a Professional Association of Driving Instructors master instructor will teach participants basic computer and skills skills. All students will get to experience it in like drive.

Skills learned during the course will be used in the PAHI Open Water Diver course and will be credited toward the PAHI Scuba Diver or Open Water Diver certification.

This class costs $20 and is open to people 10 and older. For more information or to register, contact the Rodale Aquatic Center at 610-667-4670 or e-mail aquatics@rodalecenter.com.

STATE COLLEGE CENTURY COURSE

COUNTIES NEED FOR SPECIAL OLYMPICS
Special Olympics Pennsylvania needs volunteers for the 2005 Summer Games. More than 2,000 athletes will arrive June 9 at Penn State University. State College, for free days of competition and fun.

When the class costs $20 and is open to people 10 and older. For more information or to register, contact the Rodale Aquatic Center at 610-667-4670 or e-mail aquatics@rodalecenter.com.

DANVILLE PENN STATE ALLIANCE TO HOLD GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Lehigh County chapter of the Penn State Alumni Association will hold a golf tournament on Monday at the Danville Golf Course. This year's event will feature a silent auction and Penn State items, and a chance to play three holes of golf with Mike Kitzert, Penn State football head recruiting coordinator. The cost per person is $50, which includes a buffet lunch, greens fees, carts, prizes and gratuities. The buffet lunch will begin at 12:30 p.m. and golfers will be off with a short bus ride to the clubhouse which will begin at 1:30 p.m. The club's clubhouse.

Space is limited to the first 100 registrants. Registration is encouraged. For more information, contact the director call Don DeBenedetto, 1000 Main St., Wayne, Nanticoke at 610-364-4299. For the tournament at Danville, contact Catherine Adams, Penn State Products and Chemicals Inc., P.O. Box 100, Danville, Pa. 17027. Donor information benefit the Jack Cooney Scholarship that supports the Penn State Lehigh Valley campus precollege youth program.

THE REGION RIDER FOR LIFE TO BENEFIT MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY FIGHT

The 18th annual Ride for Life will take place Saturday and Sunday when more than 3,000 Harley Davidson motorcycle riders and their families will ride to raise funds to fight muscular dystrophy. Last year, the ride raised more than $84,000 for the association. Primary sponsors of the event are 36 Harley Davidson dealers in five mid-Atlantic states who comprise the Eastern Harley-Davidson Dealers Association.

Riders will meet at local dealerships Saturday morning then travel varying distances in Maple Grove Raceway in Mohnton, Berks County. Activities will include motorcycle exhibitions, competitions and concerts.

Among the local dealers participating are Crossroads Harley-Davidson, 218 Route 209, Center Valley; 610-797-7979; Schaeffer's Harley-Davidson/Buell, 1223 Brick Hill Road, Owego; 610-797-7979; and Dave's Harley-Davidson, Inc., 1333 Bethlehem Pike, Souderton, 717-773-2067. For more information, visit www.rideforlifepenn.com and www.maplegroveraceway.com.

ST. LUKE'S NURSING ALIANCE TO HOLD CELEBRATION

St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing Alumni Association will hold its spring celebration of Nurses 2.4 p.m. Sunday in the education building at St. Luke's Hospital, Fountain Hill. All alumni are invited to attend.

For information, call 610-954-3678.

BETHLEHEM TOWNSHIP NCC OFFERING CHILDREN CLASSES ON GIFTS FOR MOM

Northampton Community College is scheduling classes with a Mother's Day theme for children at the college campus, 885 Green Road, Bethlehem Township. Children in kindergarten through second grade can make special cards for Mother's Day by using stamps, crayons, markers and coloring from 10 a.m. to noon Sunday. Children in grades 3-5 will craft Mother's Day cards 12:30-2:30 p.m. Saturday. A class on Mother's Day Presents from the Kitchen for kindergarten through second grade will be held from 9:30 a.m. to noon Saturday. English afternoons together will be held from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Sunday. Invitations, drawings, crafts and activities.

The registration, call the college toll-free at 1-877-543-0978.

FOUR AREA DISTRICT JUDGES PASS CERTIFICATION

Four area district judges have again been certified for service as a member of Pennsylvania's Unified Judicial System after successful completion recently of continuing legal education course work. They were: Marygrove S. Merlo and Michele Vaccaro, both of Allentown; Nathaniel A. Romig, both of Bethlehem.

MARYSVILLE MONROE COUNTY LISTS SCHOLARSHIPPERS

78 Monroeville High School students have been named as recipients of the 2005-2006 Monroe County Scholarship (paper cutting) class by Nancy Shively from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday at the center. The four-hour class will cover the origins of paper cutting and the ways different cultures approach the craft. There will be a practice session with tools, followed by the cutting, painting and mounting of a design specially created for the class. The finished cutting will be suitable for framing.

The cost for the class is $40 and enrollment is limited. For registration and more information, call the Heritage Center at 251-256-3030 or e-mail: info@hshc.org.

LOWER MERCHISE LIBRARY REACHES VIDEO MAGES

The Lower Merchise Library has installed a ClearView Video Magnifier - also known as a CCTV - to help the visually impaired read, write, view photos and enjoy other sight-dependent activities. The CCTV was a gift from township residents, Richard and Margie Stronback. Consisting of a digital camera and high contrast CRT monitor, the ClearView magnifies any material from 3.5 to more than 30 times its original size. For more information, call 610-606-0810.

IN MEMORIAM
When you wish to share memories of your loved one.
Call 610-420-4769.
THE MORNING CALL

Caring Makes A Difference
New more than ever... you need someone to help you.
Bachman Kulik & Reinsmith
Since 1864
17th & Hamilton Streets, Allentown-610-432-4128
John C. Acuff, Supervisor/President • G. Lester
235 Elm Street, Emmaus-610-965-7332
Christine J. Gohli, Client Care, Supervisor

Yellowstone
June 19 - July 2
51,595
Back to Ball Hall of Fame
Best Game of Chicago
World's only Com-Plex
Chicago Bulls Show &
Antique Tour
Crazy Horse &
Mount Rushmore
Monticello, 4 days
Tower & Yellowstone
National Parks
Rushmore, 11 Meals, more
Call us today!
1-800-888-8888
www.yellostone.com
TRANS-BRIDGE TOURS